Tom Wobbe, John Rehling, Joyce Kuergeleis, and Anita Muertz came before the Board to discuss the creation of a Maeystown Historic District. Since the County provides zoning administration for the Village of Maeystown, the creation of a historic district would require an amendment to the County zoning code. Chairman Knobloch said he would like to see a committee established to work out all of the details before entertaining an amendment to the code. Mr. Wobbe offered his services as a city planner at no cost to the County. The Board did not take any action on this matter. Additional conversations between Mr. Wobbe and Chairman Knobloch to establish a working group is the next course of action on this item.
